Long John Wentworth, now for Greeley, is accused of having once denounced the philosopher as " a muck-minded, slovenly cross between a vam and a cylinder press."

An eccentric old lady of Portsmouth, N. H., in honor of the agricultural nominee for the presidency, insists upon wearing an ancient white hat of her husband's to church on Sundays.

The renomination of the president was a foregone conclusion. He not only is the strongest, but the only available candidate. With him as standard-bearer, success is morally certain.

The London Spectator is strongly in favor of a woman's university in England, on the ground that the judgment of educated women is needed on many of the most important questions of the

The New York Herald concludes a long editorial with these remarks: "Looking over the whole field of political movements and probabilities the indications are that Gen. Grant will be President of the United States till 1877."

Coolly:- A cutlery manufacturing company in Pennsylvania, not satisfied with the protection of native industry by means of the duty on foreign hardware, is said to have made a five years' contract for 600 Chinese operatives at 30 cents a day. This may be called doing coolly.

PLENTY .- The Cleveland Leader says that "twenty-five cent diamonds are becoming so plenty among railroad brakemen that they are compelled to wear a piece of carpet over their shirt bosoms after dark to avoid giving lantern signals when moving about at stopping places.

A clerk in the English Admiralty Office lately had his pay suspended for twenty-eight days for addressing to the first lord of that august board some suggestions in regard to iron ship building. These suggestions were admitted to be valuable and original; nevertheless a clerk had no business to know more than a lord.

Insanity has greatly increased in France, and it takes, in most cases, a suicidal tendency. The reports of the Parisian authorities announce that the dead bodies picked up in the Seine bave doubled in number, and the new Morgue, though greatly enlarged, is insufficient for the purpose intended.

The Hartford (Conn.) Courant says Mark Twain has received, to date, a little over $22,000 for "Innocents Abroad," and is likely to receive very nearly the same sum for the first six months of "Roughing It," which is not very rough on Mark but a long way short of the $200,000 spoken of in newspaper paragraphs.

The estate of the late James Gordon Bennett, is represented to be worth ten millions of dollars. The property on Washington Heights goes to his daughter Jennette, the residence on Fifth Avenue to his widow, and the Herald and real estate connected therewith to James Gordon Bennett, Jr., who is obliged by the terms of the will to keep it in the family.

The Costa Rica Government is not afraid that by introducing Coolie labor in that country the interests of the workmen will suffer. On the contrary after mature consideration it has made a special contract with Messrs. Hubbe & Seitsel for the transportation of a large number of Chinamen direct from China, and has granted them several privileges for that purpose.

The Cleveland Leader says: " Lovers of celery and lettuce will be pleased to learn that every stalk of the former and leaf of the latter contains 19,000,000 healthy parasites to the square inch, which, taken into the human stomach, become tape-worms of the friskiest pattern. The poorest family can possess a few of these pets as vegetables grow cheaper."

Queen Victoria recently gave a grand state banquet at Windsor on the Sabbath; and not only this, but she breaks the Sabbath by traveling on that day. All the English people are talking about it, and a good many of them are regretting it. Yet it is but making a more perfect union of church and state, and England never objected to that idea very seriously.

Mark Twain has a receipt for the celebrated Rochester bean soup, which is compounded as follows: Take a lot of water, wash it well, and boil it until it is brown on both sides; then care fully pour one bean into it, and let it simmer. When the bean begins to get restless sweeten it with salt, then put it up in air-tight cans; hitch each can to a brick and chuck them overboard, and the soup is done.

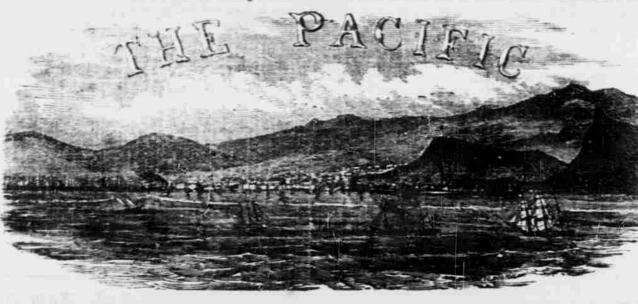

Stokes' counsel seem to have at last exhausted their ingenuity in delaying his trial or the patience of the court in accepting their evasions of a distinct issue. The last special plea has been set aside as worthless, and as Stokes refused to plead. a plea of not guilty was entered for him by direction of the Court. He then obtained a delay of thirty days to enable him to take testimony by commission of witnesses alleged to be in London and Paris.

New York, June 13 .- The funeral of the late James Gordon Bennett took place this morning from his late residence on Fifth Avenue. Among the mouraers were Mayor Hall, Horace Greeley, Judge Bedford, Jas. Brooks, and a host of other celebrities. The funeral ceremonies were performed by Vicar-General Starrs. The remains were taken to Greenwood. The streets along the route of the procession were lined with spectators, and flags throughout the city were at half-mast.

Wilson is substituted for Colfax in the ground of expediency. The high favor in which he stands with the southern blacks, the partiality expressed for him by the workingmen of the North, his unmietakable strength in New England and his general popularity, nothing but an opposition coali-tion of Democrats included will suffice to make an impression against Grant and Wilson, and the only available basis for such coalition is the independent joint-stock liberal ticket of Greeley and

Our fascinating friend, the Great Sea Serpent Snake, once more! Seen by Captain McTaggart, of the good ship "Kent," of Liverpool, on the 20th of September, on the West Coast of Africa, between Cape Palmas and Grand Bassa. On the evening previous, enormous shouls of fish of every description, including sharks and porpoises, surrounded the ship, and the next morning His Snakeship was seen with his great head eight feet out of water. He was apparently from 180 to 200 feet long, and his tail was like unto the tail of a mackerel, and so was his color like that of the said fish. He traveled at a rapid rate, but kindly stopped a few moments while the Captain examined him. It is supposed that the fish seen in such numbers the evening before were fugitives from the jaws of this hungry and devouring
